Seeing no hands and hearing no voices, Mayor Dodd closed the meeting to the public.

MAYOR'S REPORT: Mayor Dodd made announcements as follows:

The Town continues to work on the 2017 Municipal Budget. The Budget should be introduced at the next meeting subject to approval of the Finance Committee.

Economic Development is working on events for 2017. Mayor Dodd mentioned there will be more events in 2017 than the Town has seen in the last five years.

Town Engineer, Michael Hantson is working on a streetscape for the downtown area. There will be many updates taking place in our downtown area.

The Mayor briefly mentioned that DPW has done a good job on the salting/plowing this winter.

Mayor Dodd addressed that after passing the Taxi/Limousine Ordinance the downtown area seems safer and more parking spots are available. The Mayor wants our local businesses to be successful. He mentioned we will continue to target the gypsy cabs. The Police Department is watching for unlicensed vehicles.

He spoke about prequalifying services pursuant to a fair and open process for Legal Services, Architecture and Surveying and Construction Management Services.

Mayor Dodd publically thanked Town Administrator Donald Travisano for his hard work and renewing his contract for another three years.

The Mayor spoke about appointing Patrick Lavery to the RVRSA after Edward Secco stepped down after serving for 37 years.
